

ECRC Newsletter

Spring 2015 • Volume 5, Issue 3

Theme:

Winter & Hibernation
Love & Kindness

Facebook:

Please "like" us on facebook.
Our page is updated on weekdays!

ECRC Kids Fun Run:

Save the date: June 20, 2015

Parents Wanted:

We welcome you, the parents, to our classroom anytime! Please share your knowledge, culture, skills, songs, dances, or recipes with the children! You'll have fun, the children will learn something new, and your child will love having you at school too! If you are interested, please talk with your child's teachers. And a special, heartfelt thank you to all of the parents who have visited.

Tax ID:

We can provide documentation for tax purposes. If needed, please contact Corinne.

Dear Families,

We have been very busy discovering Winter and Hibernation. Check out the Picture Page below for photos of our favorite winter activities!

Each day, we use a thematic piece of children's literature to introduce our learning centers, further our knowledge, and support the exploration of our theme. Many of these books can be found at your local public library.

Here are a few we have enjoyed over the past few weeks: Froggy Gets Dresses by Jonathan London; Snow on Snow on Snow by Cheryl Chapman; White Snow by Alvin Tresselt; The Biggest, Best Snowman by Margery Cuyler; Caps, Hats, Socks, and Mittens by Louise Borden; Frozen Noses by Jan Carr; Bear's Dream by Janet Slingsby; Time to Sleep by Denise Fleming; When it Starts to Snow by Phillis Gershator; and The Little Penguin by A.J. Wood

Beginning this week, our theme of study is Love and Kindness!

Events:

Creative Movement: Monday and Wednesday PM
Yoga with Miss Alexia: Tuesday or Wednesday AM
Dance with Miss Alexia: Tuesday or Wednesday AM
Music Play with Miss Joe'I: Tuesday PM and Thursday AM

Tuition Payment Due Date- February 9th

ECRC Valentine Exchange- February 12th & 13th

Summer enrollment is now OPEN!

Picture Page!

